SMALL PIECE DRESSED FLINT – FOUND IN GRANTOWN-ON-SPEY

My elderly next door neighbour found the enclosed piece of flint in his garden, and thought that it might be of archaeological interest to your department.

To my knowledge there is no source of flint stones in this area, and as Woodside Avenue in Grantown-on-Spey is one of the oldest developed areas of the town, perhaps this small piece of dressed flint has ancient origins.

Please pass the flint on to any interested third party.

Yours most sincerely
